SPEAKER NICHOL: Do you have anything to put into the record, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President. Senator Johnson, Vard Johnson, has amendments to 1258 to be printed. (See pages 2068-69 of the Legislative Journal.)

Your Committee on Enrollment and Review reports LB 1230A to Select File.

And, Mr. President, bills read on Final Reading this morning are ready for your signature.

SPEAKER NICHOL: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I propose to sign and do sign LB 529, LB 491, LB 516, LB 105, LB 267, LB 438, LB 438A, LB 701, LB 1229, LB 225A, LB 437, LB 774, LB 774A, LB 804, LB 804A, LB 325, LB 1129. Move on to motions, number nine, LB 757.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Landis had amendments to the bill. I understand he wanted to withdraw his. Mr. President, Senator Warner would move to return the bill for a specific amendment. (Warner amendment appears on pages 2070-71 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Warner, please.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, Senator Coll has consented to allow to use this bill dealing with educational matters, his bill does, to make a change in statute to give you some history and several of you, I know, have had some discussions on this issue in the last few days. Back in 1973 LB 358 was enacted and it dealt with the ability of private schools to acquire books, textbooks, from the public school system. As it occurred, there was a bill introduced the session before, enacted rather the session before dealing with books for seventh to twelfth grades which subsequently had been declared in the interim unconstitutional, but LB 358 was introduced which expanded the same concept for, I believe, kindergarten through twelfth or at least first through twelfth grade and the way it was to function was that the private schools could request of the public school district to supply books and also that the public school system would receive in its...in a form...would have been in a form of deficiency, $10 per textbook for the private schools, but also for the public
